$50,000 DAMAGE DONE BY THE CYCLONE AT TALLADEGA

THREE WERE LOST AND ONE MORE PERSON WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Talladega Ala., May 12.—With nearly damage estimated at a million dollars, Talladega was visited by a cyclone last night about 9 o'clock.

Though remarkable were some of the pranks of the storm the remarkable feature of the cyclone, (winding, wind is that not a serious personal injury was done.

Two white men suffering slight bruises another with a wound from flying debris and a woman with a broken arm are the injuries reported.

The damage done was so unexpected and accomplished so quickly that in the midst of the storm it was realized what was really going on.

The path of the storm was a quarter of a mile wide and it had ridden high wind in the air until it reached the south boundary of the city when it dropped low. Its full fury was mainly in the manufacturing district of the city. It crossed over the city from northwest to northeast at least left its mark there.

The storm really seemed to be the result of a wind from the southwest and southwest meeting at Talladega as buildings are damaged on both the north and south exposure. In fact from the directions in which debris was carried the cyclone must have come from all directions.

Practically every business house in town was damaged to some extent, some with walls partly torn down, others unroofed and many stationary sidewalk awnings were blown down. These awnings caused great damage in their falling and crashing into plate glass windows.

The most serious damage in the business district is the county court house which amounts to fully $100,000. The great clock tower which stood upon the roof in the center of the building was blown over and falling crashed through the porch on the east side of the building carrying it down and a half dozen stone columns. The cornice of the building was blown off and the roof torn up.

The heaviest individual loss is suffered by the Alabama Power Development Company at its substation on Court Street which was demolished with a loss estimated at $40,000 to $70,000. The cost of switchboards transformers etc. recently installed were this morning a mass of wreckage amidst tangled wires and shattered glass and rubble.

The Southern Bell Telephone Company estimates its loss in the thousands. One end and part of one side of the station house of the fire department was blown out and the building was partly unroofed. Three men in the building were blown across the street, but unharmed. One of them was pulled from under a mass of debris.

Marshal Slaughter and Deputy White fell at the first shot both being dead when they arrived. Manning also fell with a wound in his abdomen. ## PICHESON SUBJECTED TO SEVERE INSANITY TEST

Boston Mass., May 12.—The Board of Insanity experts selected by Governor Foss to examine into the mental condition of Clarence V. T. Picheson the former Baptist clergyman under sentence of death for the murder of Avis Linnell subject of Picheson today to the most exhaustive tests known.

The examination was in the big music room of the Sheriff's house. Picheson showed no trace of nervousness. He walked from the cell and at the completion of the long day's ordeal apparently was in excellent conditions. The physicians avoided discussing with anyone the results of their examination which continued uninterrupted from 9:30 a. m. until 12:30 p. m. when Picheson signified a desire for his dinner. Back in his cell he partook heartily of the special food which is daily sent to him from a restaurant outside.

The second session lasted until 3:30 o'clock. At this conclusion he had on him the visitors good afternoon and was returned to his cell by carriage and he marched across the jail yard being apparently one of his jailers. If not confidence in a heavy supper and tonight was reading in his cell being allowed the Sunday papers from which had been clipped in reference to his own case.

FRIENDS OF UNDERWOOD'S TO MAKE BIG FIGHT

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION WILL MEET WEDNESDAY IN COLUMBIA

Columbia S. C. May 11.—The South Carolina State Democratic convention will meet here next Wednesday. In addition to the expected fight on pre-identical principles and the contest for election of delegates it brings the fight has been sharp in charge as between Judge Ira B. Jones candidate for Governor and Governor Cole I. Blease. Both Jones supporters are expected to control by a large majority.

The chief fight on the presidential possibilities is expected to center when the question of instructions to delegates arises. The supporters of Governor Underwood will insist that the delegates be instructed to elect a candidate who has any of the support the counties have instructed for him at the county conventions held last Monday night.

The friends of Representative O. W. Underwood of Alabama are expected to put up a vigorous fight against either instruction or indecision. While the county conventions have no official endorsement from any of the counties he is known to have some strength.

Two contests from Georgetown and Charleston are to be decided. The fight for election is delegate at large promises to be a lively one. Besides United States Senators B. R. Tillman and F. D. Smith there are half a dozen candidates for the four places.

The congressional district delegates also will be selected. The delegates from the various districts holding separate meetings.

Our Brother Joseph Wesley HILL was called from labor to rest on April 27th 1922. He was born January 17th 1856 in Henry County Alabama within a quarter of a mile of the spot where he lived all his life and where he breathed his last.

Brother Hill was the kind of citizen that makes the very salt of the earth. A pure man of few words having a plain honest and upright way and manner a square deal was his rule. He could not be swayed from his convictions. He was a liberal man helping schools and church work and in other public enterprises doing his part. His way was a large part. He was a way optimistic and true brother things ahead. He was buried at Holly Branch Church near his home attended by a large concourse of friends. His eulogy was held by his Masonic brethren.

WHEREAS The membership of Dothan Lodge No. 486 desire to express and record their sense of respect for his memory and to furnish his family a token of sympathy for their loss.

ENTERPRISE IS COMING WITH A LARGE NUMBER OF FANS

How It Is Grown In Alabama and How It Fertilizes the Land

I want to tell you about crimson clover and how you can grow it on your land and how it will make your land rich and increase your yields. I spent last week visiting fields of crimson and bur clover in different parts of the state and am now prepared to make the unqualified statement to you that you can succeed with them on practically any kind of soil in the state from sandy to black-prairie loam and sandy loam lands seem especially adapted to them. I wish you could have been with me last week and seen the bur and crimson clover at Auburn Mr. W. F. Shuford's farm on clover at Talladega and Mr. R. J. Lambart's bur clover at Drakton in Wilcox county.

Prof. Dugan has been growing both of these clovers at Auburn for a number of years with great success. The soil there is poor sandy loam with a yellow clay subsoil. Naturally one of the poorest soil types in Alabama. W. F. Shuford at Talladega (Wilcox county) has land that is largely sandy and sandy loam. From years ago he planted about one acre of crimson clover. It did so well that next year he planted 10 or 15 acres. The next year 100 acres and this year he had 170 acres. He is now to plant this under and will follow it with cotton and corn. He is making a bale of cotton per acre after clover with no fertilizer but acid phosphate and kaffir. Mr. R. J. Lambart of Drakton Wilcox county has been growing bur clover for a number of years and this year has 70 acres growing where he grew corn and cotton last year and will make crops on the same land again this year. In addition he has bur clover scattered over several hundred acres of his pasture.

Crimson clover should be sown from September 15 to November 1. Sow 15 to 20 pounds of seed broadcast in your cotton middles and harrow them in with a spring tooth or V-harrow. For crimson clover your soil must be inoculated—that is you must sow a thousand or more pounds per acre of soil from a field where crimson red or white clover has been grown. Plant only an acre or a half first year and then you can get a start. You will find if you do not inoculate.

For bur clover inoculation is not necessary. Sow the seed any time in the fall before November in your cotton middle or on your bermudagrass and harrow them in. Sow the seed in the fur at the rate of from 3 to 5 bushels per acre. Remember that bur clover once started recovers itself each year. In crimson clover it takes its growth in winter and early spring and is ready to plow under in time to make a crop of cotton or corn.

These two clovers are as easy to grow as corn and are just as valuable in making your land rich. They will grow on nearly all soils in Alabama. They are worth $10 to $15 a ton as a fertilizer for your land. If you could grow two crops of clover on your land each year with a crop of corn or cotton in between would you not try it? You want to cut your fifth year in half and make bigger crops than you are now? If so you are in for a big crop.

Very truly yours
B. J. Moss,
State Agent

WILL BRING STRONG TEAM TO DOOTHAN NEXT THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

A letter from the management of the Enterprise baseball team received today said that they would be here Thursday and Friday and besides bringing with them a good strong team will be supported by two hundred visiting fans.

Judging from the letter received they seem to be of the opinion that they will win from Dothan by all means and have strengthened up all week for this match their other visit.

They ask that an effort be made to have a large crowd present during the match as they want to have as many as possible witness the doubling they have to start for our crack team.

With this another side to the question and Dothan while making no claim over the matter has not been at all giving by any means and is willing at the church for the Enterprise. Dothan has lost only one game this season and the home boys declare that if Dothan can do as good as they did in Troy that the Enterprise bunch will have to hold to some other part of the world before they reach Alabama to get the club to land there.

There will be a picnic at Waterford on Friday and they expect to bring 150 or 200 fans down for the afternoon game. In that event Dothan will also need some personal attention to back them up and all loyal fans are expected.

SCHUBERT MIND QUALIFIES WILL BE AT CHESAPEAKE

Among the best medical entertainments of the season will be the Schubert Mind Qualifications which comes to Dothan during the chess luncheon week. The program presented by the Schuberts is one of such variety and excellence as to make them one of the most popular musical companies of the day. In solo, duet and ensemble work they more than excel.

Each member of the company is a skilled musician with several years experience in actual work before the public and chautauque audiences. Their individual sketches are both original and captivating and as a mixed quartet of masters and entertainers the management presents them with the full assurance that they will meet the requirements of the various patrons of the chautauque.

This company toured the South the past winter under the direction of the Alabaster System and gave perfect satisfaction everywhere. It appeared in it because of this they have been retained for a chautauque.

SUN YAT SEN'S LIFE

Chief of Republic Has Had an Adventurous Career.

Went to Hawaiian School—Proficient
in English History and Literature—Narrow Escapes From Capture

Honolulu, H. I.—The young Chinese party in Hawaii is represented by 95 per cent of the population of Hawaii born Chinese and in part of those whose birthplace is somewhere in China. Is it to be wondered at that progressiveness has had such a hold where the president of the new republic was brought into the world? Dr. Sun Yat Sen was born in Kiauk Island of Mant November 24 1866 and was taken to China by his parents when about four years of age remaining there until he was ten years old.

In 1906 he crossed the Pacific to the mainland and was admitted to the United States as a Chinese student and traveler on a certificate procured by him in China. After touring the United States and Europe he returned to Hawaii making Honolulu his home.
What remained of his family resided at the old homestead or Maui until about four years ago when the price on the head of the doctor reached an enormous figure.

Then they decided to take passage from Honolulu to Japan where they arrived safely. While in Honolulu and on the voyage to Japan agents of the dowager empress hovered dangerously close to the family apparently with a view to kidnapping the men
bers and holding them as hostages against the revolutionary doctor.

Chicago may not be aware of a census of Chinese taken in Hawaii shortly after annexation. At the time registers of the birth of Chinese in the islands were made and certificates given. It opened the way to graft and was a source of income to many attorneys for the Chinese would pay any price for a certificate which showed their children to have been born here and which gave them the franchise. Also holders of these certificates could get by the army and immigration agents on the Pacific coast. A certificate was a valuable asset and more indeed was the Chinese who was not willing to tempt an official to issue
one on the payment of much fine gold.

Those of the Chinese securing the coveted paper who were old enough took the oath of allegiance to the United States. Dr. Sun Yat Sen was one of them. That he had once offered a certificate from the Chinese government was not considered a renunciation of his citizenship. His Chinese certificate issued by the Imperial government was broken upon as a proof of realigning with a country with it right to try it without the empire.
 Two years later when the doctor was in China the Chinese minister in Hawaii advised the government that the much wanted man was traveling between Hawaii and Japan and should be arrested. Again the doctor refused. In 1909 he personally led a little band of 200 rebels in a revolt which had for its object the overthrow of the monarchy and the establishment of a government on western ideals. His force was defeated by 4,000 Imperial troops sent against it. After two years left before his little force of revolutionists.

At night he remarked that the Manchus dynasty was surely weakening and that China would rise and drive the Manchus out of China. He hoped to see erected a republican form of government.

Events transpiring in the empire
 during the past few weeks confirm the prophecy of the doctor for the army and the navy turn now to the revolutionists as friends not enemies.

DARING HEN LOSES HER LIFE

Motorcycle Puts End to Passion of Annoying Automobile Chase

West Springfield, Mass.—A motorist who drove about a mile in the Riverdale road according to witnesses ended the somewhat extraordinary career of the famous dodging hen which for several months has tormented automobile drivers and trolley motor men in Ashleystown.

The hen was a big legless and was familiarly known as Mrs. Dodge to the motorists of the Holyoke road. All summer she amused in this great delight in running in front of the cars on miles but then she was going just ahead of a bus a breadth. At first the men used to shoo down to allow her to get by but soon they noticed that she would start from the roadway as the cars approached and run in front of them. One time and then again it is reported she just tall feathers.

After a time she had found the trolley line for steady use and who took it for driving automobiles. This proved more exhilarating as they came faster and were more numerous. Persons who have watched her say that she has dodged as many as fifteen machines in rapid succession and seemed to enjoy the fun immensely.

She successfully ran in front of a large touring car which was going to Ward Springfield at a moderate pace but failed to observe a motorcycle going in the opposite direction at a fast clip. Perhaps she could change her direction at such a time but was upon her and with a frightened squeak she departed this life.

FROZE HIS TONGUE TO POLE

Missouri Boy Offered All Kinds of Aid by Crowd—Is Freed and Goes to Doctor

Independence, Mo.—Albert Abolm, a young boy, was caught in a predicament when he was stuck to a pole. He was trying to get the adhesive power of cold iron in his mouth.

With some whoolmen young Abolm was passing a candy store on West Maple avenue. While some went in and bought candy, Abolm stood on the sidewalk near an iron trolley pole. A sudden impulse seized the boy to apply his tongue to it.

He tried it. His tongue remained frozen to the pole and all of his efforts to get it loose were fruitless. A crowd gathered. There were many suggestions. One man came running with a bucket of cold water which he held over the boy's head. Another man threw the water on the pole. The boy was freed and went to the doctor.

Finally Dr. A. Schwaner, proprietor of the candy store, arrived with some lukewarm water which was poured on gradually at the junction of the trolley pole and the boy's tongue. Gradually the tongue came loose. Then the boy went to the family physician for treatment.

DOCTOR HAS 80,000 PATIENTS

He Boasts of Having the Largest Clientele of Any Physician in the World

London.—A physician with eighty thousand patients according to his own statement is announced in these days of big entrees. He is Doctor Ciley, who practices in Harley and its vicinity, where he is known as the thorough London or the three-guns doctor.

Doctor Ciley told about his gigantic business.

I have had eighty thousand patients six years, he said. I am not at the end and all of every one. I have a biggest practice in the world. At Poplar where he had been for several the roadway was crisscrossed with hundreds had to go away. She had been in Harley the death rate I open lower. He said all the work itself. He knew some people who had waited outside his door for two hours.

His trouble was in a great measure he said that his fees were too low. He said that he had to get more people to get money. He said that he had to get more people to get money. He said that he had to get more people to get money.

MUSIC-LOVING COWS

Waukegan, Wis.—J. O'Brien, a directed and farmer, producer of quality has discovered that use of a cheap phonograph has increased the producing value of his herd of twenty blooded cows two each a day. As the milk sells at a price of 12 cents a quart, this makes his music worth a penny to the farm. He tried an experiment on the theory that milk produced by cows who are happy is of better quality. He said that he had to get more people to get money. He said that he had to get more people to get money. He said that he had to get more people to get money.

Bit Her on the Ankle. After deliberating on and a half a day, a jury awarded Mrs. B. Snowden of this place in her suit against Dr. Norton P. Brown a neighbor whose pet dog, a bulldog, bit her on the ankle while she was taking a bath. The dog was declared to be a nuisance.

and greatly stirred the demands of the business world have made it the most exact community of the market. The scientific basis on which it has been placed is a part of the modern advertising plan. A business plan that contemplates honest dealing. The merchant who puts honesty into his advertisements is endorsed by the newspaper or publication that applies the same principle to its advertising rates and the newspaper or publication that recognizes the pure deal and sells its space on the basis of worth should be endorsed by the merchant who is doing business on that basis.

Good Advice Improved Upon

When you do consult advertising, says the All Order Journal, be particular about it. Do it as early and as often as you can. A high grade milliner advertising a spring opening. Mail such matter in a closed envelope of good quality with a two-cent stamp attached.

That is good advice but the Philadelphia Record improves upon it. When you are about to do circular advertising, says the Record, first cut out the cost of the envelope of good quality and the two-cent stamp and the paper and the printing and the addressing and then get advertising rates from the best daily newspaper in the territory you wish to cover.

Compare the number of people your circulars would reach (remembering that most of them would be unready) with the number the newspaper's advertisement would reach. Compare the relative influence of the circular and the newspaper. When you have done these things you will save your two-cent stamp and let the newspaper pay for the transmission of your message.

Printers Ink says—Our idea of the proper length for an ad is that it be long enough to reach from the goods to the consumer.

Of nothing to talk about—grace opera.

Of nothing to eat—a Charlotte opera.

Of nothing to read—a popular magazine story.

THE GOLDEN RULE.

Here is the golden rule as it has been interpreted by various branches of the human family.

Do as you would be done by—For all.

Do not that to a neighbor which you would take from him—For all.

What you would not wish done to yourself do not do unto others—Christ.

One should seek for others the happiness one desires for one's self—Buddha.

He sought for others the good he desired for himself. Let him pass on—Egypian.

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye even so to them—Christ.

Let none of you treat his brother as he would himself would dislike to be treated—Mohammedan.

The true rule of life is to do unto others as they do unto you—It is the rule.

The law inscribed on the fire is of all men is to love the members of society as themselves—Roman—Chicago Record Herald.

WHY NOT?

Did Heisman ever talk Asquith?

Is the wall of an invalid kitty mew mew?

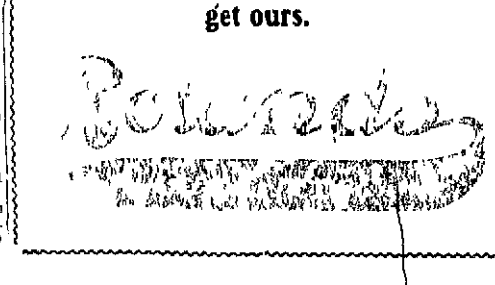

Do boys do their business in their business?

As with an expensive, high-power racing automobile, so with groceries. The human machine needs the best fuel to get the greatest efficiency from it—just like the motor car.

GIVE the finest auto bad gasoline and you get poor speed—feed the best man alive on improper food and you see a human wreck. You owe it to yourself—for your health's sake—for your pocket's sake—to feed your stomach with the finest groceries—with good whole some food. That is YOUR fuel.

Buy groceries for their "fuel" values, get ours.

Suit

BY MARION MORRIS

WOMAN must have a tailored suit. And yet she can exist without a dress.

That is not an opinion but a fact recognized by all.

Let even to view of this people venture to say that this to be a topcoat season. But the

the most desirable when detachable

to that they can be easily laundered.

Wide silk lapels is used for lining coats and to accented panels and in a few trimmings too.

Buttons play a very important role as nearly every coat is provided with and with fancy buttons. To visit a suit shop these days reminds one of a trip of discovery to grandma's old

box. Most buttonholes are used for trimming purposes but no they are easily made by machine they are not among the most desirable adornments.

Added Years

Face collars are too much in evidence especially those of machine

lace. As a tailored suit should not be made to look like a dress with a mantle of lace about the shoulders all laces should be eliminated on suits except for small turnover collars and collars of Irish for a real lace that will give simply a refreshing touch. They should never be a real part of suits.

Silk suits are the dress suits of the season. And the reason I advise a woman to get a silk suit in preference to a dress is because with the addition of a pretty collar blouse she will have a charming costume for any day

occasion—and a complete suit too.

A silk suit does not signify one of taste as this is only one of the seasonable silks. Although the revival of taffeta seems like quite a new mode and every one is lauding it I do not think it advisable for a woman to get such a suit unless she can at least find two silk suits as taffeta does not fall very successfully. And as the mode has been urged so strenuously

it is difficult to resist.

Distinctive Touches Pleasing

In spite of the fact that I am an admirer of plain tailored suits for years I am not so much in favor of the elaborate about the suits that are so much in vogue. These suits are very smart and attractive but it is the plain tailored suit that is the most desirable. It is the plain

SHOE FOR MEN

Just a few years back the Daggett children used to go by with their nurse. They were swarthy and quarrelsome and Tom Daggett always made Bude cry. I used to think what a merry it was that their parents were blind enough to love them, because goodness knows no other human being would have done so.

I wish you could see Tom this year. He is the best looking creature in five counties and all the girls are crazy about him. If he hangs on his nightgown and she nearly faints with joy. The other night he led the coffin at the party. As for Bude—I helped her make a doll's dress just yesterday. I believe and yet at that same dance I found myself admiring a willow girl who looked like a young person and bless me if I wasn't Bude Daggett!

It seems perfectly absurd that she should be sitting up later than 8 o'clock. She isn't satisfied with being a belle among the boys of her own set. Said Bude: But she has to grab out for the older men too. I'll have to box her ears if she doesn't quit.

Just a year ago I realized only vaguely that the Crochys had a daughter. I didn't know a thing about it. I was a shy silent fellow, thing all day slipping out of sight and mousing by myself and scared to death when any outsiders appeared. I don't know what has happened to her, but I suspect that some one told her she was pretty and that settled it. I can't turn around now without setting eyes on Lillian Crochy in the most distracting, outlandish work she ever did. I know that she is getting fatter and smiling at precisely the angle to show her dimples!

We're going to have a lay ride," she told me casually once when there was nobody else to talk to. The young crowd I mean. Hear me. I should think it would be so stupid for the rest of you with nothing to do!

I restrained myself from grasping her hands by the shoulders and shaking her. I haven't taken any ride since I had so much hay down my neck and in my ears and eyes and throat that I never wanted to look at a hay stack again as long as I lived. I haven't had supper on the beach and eaten sand in the devil's egg suit in the sandwiches and June bugs in the cake and thought I was having the time of my life. I haven't sung. We're here because we're here because we're here. I'll swallow mosquitoes all the way home!

Haven't I fallen over the fence trying to get into the front door in the pitch dark? And then that infant has the nerve to act as though all the joys of life were denied me just because she was going on a witchy uncomfortable chivald up expedition instead of sauntering supper at home!

The last straw however was when she came over from Chicago to see me. Naturally I wanted to show him the place by moonlight. It was not at all that we were hunting included spots! Besides all the babies on our front porch were occupied. Quite usually we headed for the summer house on the lake shore but as we stepped inside I heard some one murmur. "Did you ever see a fat another girl before me?" It was Lillian and Tom Daggett!

I should have spanked them both and sent them home but I couldn't resist myself with saying to a sister love. Oh excuse me! Then we walked on. I knew of a most charming retreat under the wild grape vine where you have a lovely view of the moon just before we stepped around I heard a deep masculine voice of sixteen or twenty blur out. Bude did you ever care for another man as you do for me?

I grabbed him hysterically at the waist and ran. There was another faint cough at the end of the pier and still more faints were out in all the rowboats. Bude didn't seem to be any place on earth for him and now I was under the lake or up with the old people under the glare of the arc light telling stories about what had passed before the war.

How I called to disgust. Before I came here again I wish you'd manage to fill off a few dozen of those peppy girls. There are no more of them that a few more or less won't really matter and they've got a room to live in!

I think I'll have to. I'm going to begin with Tom Daggett's freshman friend. He said that the report would be a nice place if there weren't so many old folks around cluttering up the veranda and the berry brats and making things uncomfortable for people.
